

REHEARSING A PAGEANT AT MISS ANNE MORGAN'S HOME

First Dress Presentation of the Entertainment to Be Given at the Seventy-first Regiment Armory on May 5 and 6 for the Benefit of the Vacation Association Is Held in Miss Morgan's Residence, 219 Fifth Avenue

Two bewitching witches in their costumes for the pageant.

At the left—Miss Anne Morgan and Mrs. Wendell Baker, secretary of the Association, directing the rehearsal.

A group of girls connected with the Vacation Association posing as Shakespearean characters.

A JESTER AND A HERALD IN THEIR PAGEANT COSTUMES.

THREE OF THE YOUNG WOMEN WHO WILL POSE IN COURT DRESS OF DIFFERENT PERIODS.

Photos, copyright, Underwood & Underwood.